DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 1-3 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Regarding claim 1, it is not clear whether "the electrical conductors" recited in line 4, and "the rechargeable battery", recited in line 18, is the same as the "rechargeable battery and electrical circuit" in line 3 of the claim.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-3 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Drucker.

Regarding claims 1-3, Drucker teaches in the figures an animal luring device comprising a base (10), an electrical conductor (22), an electrical circuit (col.3, line 54), a volume control potentiometer (34), a selector switch (14), speaker (col. 3, line 63), a rechargeable battery (col. 4, line 30), a battery charging device (col. 4, line 30), an auxiliary power cord (28) and a selectable and removable plug-in module (20). It should be noted that the examiner takes the position that the device of Drucker is capable of performing the functional recitations in the claims.
